MEMORANDUM FOR CHIEF OF STAFF

SUBJECT: Army Science Board Panel on Personnel Factors in Weapon System
Performance, Dr. Peter D. Weddle, Chairman

1. Panel meeting at INSCOM 15 May 1984, Room 130. Arrangements have been confirmed with Ron Mlinarchik, Executive Director, Army Science Board (79703) and Al Creasy (DCSPER) (51457/54615). (SECRET level).

2. Background - Last year, a small ASB group including Dr. Weddle, GEN Blanchard and others were briefed by INSCOM on activities of the Monroe Institute and other para-psychological subjects. On 7 March, by telephone with Dr. Weddle, I ascertained that he wants to follow up on plans and progress made in these areas. He also said that LTG Elton had asked him to review these subjects and identify applications to Army operations and training.

3. LTC Alexander has been alerted to prepare an agenda and topics for discussion. It is recommended that the agenda be reviewed with Dr. Peter Weddle before the meeting.

4. Attendance is estimated by Al Creasy to be about seven people as listed:

Chairman - Dr. Peter Weddle: (Director, National Security Programs, The Hay Group, Washington, D.C.).

SG1D

Dr. Glenn Gaustad: Mgr., Advanced Tech. Labs, Texas Instruments, Dallas.

Dr. Edward R. Jones: Chief Human Factors Engineer, McDonnell Douglas, St. Louis.

SG1D

Dr. Chris J. D. Zarafonitis: Private Consultant, Biomedical R&D, Inc., Ann Arbor, Michigan.

(Additional biographical data are attached).

5. 1984 ASB Summer Study at the National Academy of Sciences Study Center, Woods Hole, Massachusetts (30 July-09 August) will concentrate on two topics:

IACG-SC
SUBJECT: Army Science Board Panel on Personnel Factors in Weapon Systems
Performance, Dr. Peter D. Weddle, Chairman

07 March 1984

- a. Leading and Manning Army 21, and
- b. Technologies to Improve Logistics and Weapon Support.

The meeting on 15 May is in preparation for the Summer Study. INSCOM is one of several activities requested to brief this and other panels of ASB in connection with the Summer Study.
